OLIVER AMES, Treasurer.

ROAD COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

In the figures which we give, you will see the details of the way in which your money has been expended the past year. We have drawn no more money from the treasury than was appropriated for us, although we have expended more, for various reasons, and have charged the work to next year's account.

Many of our expenses have to be estimated, and many times repairs are called for, late in the season, as was the case this year, after the great rain which came the last of November, and washed our roads so badly, necessitating additional work. It is also for your interest that we run the stone crusher late in the season, when there is plenty of water, and the road teams have no other work, thus preparing crushed stone for use in the early spring.

We would take this occasion to remind you that it is now five years that the town has enjoyed the benefit of the liberal bequest, for the repairs of roads, made to us by our late esteemed townsman, Hon. Oliver Ames, Jr. Surely he put that money where it is doing very much good to us all, and will continue to be of great benefit as long as we have roads to keep in repair.

We will not attempt to enumerate the permanent improvements that have been made during this time, but would ask you to think them over, and see if a great change for the better has not been made. And can we not see, that at the present rate of improvement we shall in the near future have all first-class roads?

If we were to enjoy the income of this bequest for only a few years, we should not feel justified in doing our work as we have in many cases, but as it is, we have endeavored to make permanent work, as far as we can, and have endeavored to see that your money has been well expended, and the object of the giver accomplished. It certainly has not been the hope of pecuniary gain that has influenced us to serve you, but we surely have the good of the town in view, more than personal favor.

We think the Road Commissioners are put to extra trouble in being required to obtain the approval of two Selectmen and two Commissioners before any of their bills can be paid. Why should they not stand in the same relation to the Treasurer as the School Committee and Selectmen do, and when they produce regular receipted bills, with the approval of two Commissioners, be allowed to receive the money appropriated for them?

In building the new roads we have kept as near the appropriations as we could consistently with the public safety. We used the greatest economy in the work, and still could not finish them with the money we had.

We think $175 more will be required to finish the Allen road, and $25 for Roach Street, including what is now due the Commissioners.

We have kept separate accounts of the money expended on the new roads as directed, and show what was expended on each.

REPORT.

To the Citizens of Easton:

Your School Committee present the following report for the year 1883: —

STATISTICS.

Number of scholars in town May 1, 1883, between five and fifteen years of age,	790
This is a loss from the year before of	32
Number of different scholars of all ages enrolled on the school registers for 1883,	928
Number over fifteen years of age,	80
Number under five years of age,	8
Average amount per scholar appropriated by the towns of the State for 1882,	$10 46
Average amount per scholar appropriated by the towns of the State for 1883,	$10 80

APPROPRIATION.

The amount necessary to appropriate for the support of schools for 1884 is $8,532. This amount is made necessary by one of the conditions of the Oliver Ames bequest, which requires the town to appropriate the same amount per scholar as was appropriated by the towns of the State for the preceding year. Our number of scholars between the ages of five and fifteen years on May 1, 1883, was 790

(and $10.80 \times 790 = $8,532$, as above). This amount is slightly less than last year, the larger average appropriation being more than counterbalanced by the smaller number of scholars.

We recommend the usual amount, $400, for repairs.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The proportionate expense of No. 7, as compared with other parts of the town, has been maintained, in accordance with the second and third conditions named in the bequest, viz., as much money per scholar from the money raised by taxation for schools should be appropriated for the scholars at No. 7 as for the scholars in the other schools in town, and three fourths of the income of the bequest should be applied at No. 7.

The amount per scholar appropriated in 1883 was $10.46. No. 7 had 508 scholars, and the part of the appropriation for No. 7 was $10.46 × 508 =	$5,313 68
Add three fourths of the income of the bequest,	3,000 00
Total that must be expended in No. 7,	$8,313 00

The expenses of No. 7 were as follows: —

Teachers' salaries in No. 7,	$7,257 76
Proportion of music and drawing,	372 83
" " supplies,	370 04
Cost of fuel,	432 31
Care of schoolhouse,	428 50
The total expense of No. 7,	$8,861 34

This amount includes the expense of the High School, which is necessarily much larger per scholar than that of the common schools.

The amount appropriated for repairs was	$400 00
Of this sum there was expended	224 29
Balance unexpended,	$175 71

DETAILED REPORTS.

The number of children between the ages of five and fifteen fluctuates from year to year. It has not been on the increase for a number of years. In 1877 the number was 826, and in 1881 it was 832; this year it is 790, thirty-two less than last year and forty-two less than in 1881. There have been very few changes of teachers, much less than the average number of changes in other towns. This is a great advantage, the reasons being too obvious to need dwelling upon. This advantage we are able to secure because of the liberal provision made for education in this town. There is nothing of unusual interest to report from the several schools under the charge of the Committee. The most considerable change that has been made is, that the services of a special drawing teacher have been dispensed with. The teachers were furnished excellent means, with slight expense to themselves, to prepare for the instruction of this branch of education, — a branch of teaching now made compulsory by law.

There are, however, evident reasons why the instruction of the scholars in music needs a special teacher. Some teachers cannot sing and have no ear for music. One who cannot sing is not fitted to do much as an instructor in music; it is therefore requisite to continue the employment of a special teacher in this art. The present instructor, Mr. J. E. Sheperdson, has, since he began his work, created a new interest in singing, and there is good reason to think that better progress will be made in it now than at any time hitherto.

TRUANCY.

We are sorry to report an increase of truancy among our children, especially at North Easton. This is to be accounted for from the fact that there has been no place assigned where our truants could be sent. The State school at Monson, where our truants were assigned when truant laws were passed by the town, was reported to us as full some time ago, and no other place, that can be considered as properly available, has been at our command. It is needless to consider at any length the evils of truancy; they are too evident. It is a serious harm to those who practise it, and it is a great injury to the schools where it is common. All that is needed is that there shall be an available place to which truants can be sent. It will need only one or two examples to put a stop to the evil. There is a way out of the difficulty, and that is by the town acting with reference to the following provision of the Public Statutes, Chap. 42, Sect. 5: "When three or more cities or towns in any county shall so require, the county commissioners shall establish at convenient places therein, other than the jail or house of correction, at the expense of the county, truant schools for the confinement, discipline, and instruction of minor children convicted under the provisions of this act, and shall make suitable provisions for the government and control of said schools, and for the appointment of proper teachers and officers thereof."

It is probable that if such a place were established, the mere fact of its availability for the purposes designed would, without proceeding to extreme measures, give the School Committee the power to entirely control this evil, as it did when Monson was assigned. We therefore urge the town to adopt the article which covers this matter, and which will be offered for their consideration at the forthcoming town meeting. A law has been passed later than the one just quoted, which allows two or more counties to unite in establishing a truant school, and the proposed article is so worded as to apply to either provision, leaving the commissioners to choose which of the two plans may seem best. Two towns in Bristol County have already made such a request, and it only needs the vote of Easton, therefore, to make it obligatory for the commissioners to provide the place designated. When this is done there will be no difficulty in entirely suppressing the evil of truancy here.

THE OAKES AMES BEQUEST.

Reference to the financial statement of this bequest will show the uses to which the income received from that source has been applied. The largest item of expense has been that employed in securing lectures. The interest in these lectures has continued unabated, and they are undoubtedly productive of much good, while they afford a means of pleasing entertainment, which is itself a great good. Small libraries of books of reference and books illustrative of the various studies pursued have been sup plied to all the schools at North Easton. Large glass cases for holding the mechanical and other apparatus and the geological and other specimens have been placed in the High School room. There is a growing collection of natural and artificial curiosities in the cabinet which, it is hoped, will be largely increased from time to time by the gifts of graduates and friends of the school. The study of physiology will be much assisted by the aid of a fine manikin just received from Paris. Some of this fund will be expended during the coming year in the instruction of boys in the use of wood-working tools.

Oliver Ames has continued for another year his gift of magazines to children outside of North Easton village. The financial statement of this gift is appended to this report.

We append the usual accounts, etc., which, with this report, are respectfully submitted.
